

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

Monument Tugu Pahlawan and Museum 10 November was built to memorize the struggle of Arek-arek Suroboyo (Young Heroes of Surabaya). Monument Tugu Pahlawan and Museum 10 November as a public facility always gives services to the public in a good way and also has a historical value. Monument Tugu Pahlawan and Museum 10 November has a lot of interesting collection that can attract the visitors, because the visitors can know the history of Surabaya and also the war in 10 November 1945.

The writer did her internship at Monument Tugu Pahlawan and Museum 10 November as Collection and Education Staff. The main job during doing the internship was as a tour guide. In this position the writer had a responsibility to give information about the history and also the collection of Monument Tugu Pahlawan and Museum 10 November to the visitor. There are a lot of experiences that the writer got from the internship in Monument Tugu Pahlawan. The writer knew about the history of Surabaya, knew about how to be a good tour guide and so on. It was very important for the writer because the writer could apply what she got in college into her internship. The writer could know how to apply and use English for guiding and translating.

A lot of experiences that the writer got during the internship were not only about her skill, the writer also got knowledge about many different social aspects

REFERENCES

1. <http://www.wisatanesia.com/2010/11/wisata-jawa-timur.html>
2. Manual Book of Tugu Pahlawan Monument and Museum 10 November